

One of these friendly faces may visit your school/kindergarten in regards to the Department of Education Training program (DET).

If you have any questions at all feel free to contact us. Call Sunraysia Community Health Services on P: 5022 5444.

	Kathy Stidwill: Kathy Stidwill is the Child Health Senior Clinician supporting the Allied Health staff in the program. Kathy is a Hanen certified trainer in the Learning Language and Loving It Program. Kathy is a Speech Pathologist who has worked for many years in both community health and education settings and is available to answer any questions you have about the Allied Health programs. Kathy can be contacted via email kstidwill@schs.com.au
	Rachael McLean: Rachael McLean is a Senior Paediatric Occupational Therapist (OT). Rachael enjoys supporting and exploring sensory processing and emotional regulation, as well as supporting fine motor skill development. Rachael has experience working with children aged 0-18 years, in private practice, community health setting, classroom environments and the home. Rachael has completed SPARK training through Hanen and Traffic Jam in Your Brain, she recently developed her skills with the Zones of Regulation program. Rachael can be contacted via email rdyke@schs.com.au
	Rochelle Linklater: Rochelle is a Senior Speech Pathologist. Rochelle has a keen interest in children's oral motor development, how children develop their literacy skills, and articulation. So really, she is just interested in all things Speech Pathology! Rochelle loves collaborating with different professionals around all of the different strategies we can use to support and nurture children's overall development and love for learning. Rochelle is Hanen Certified in the Learning Language and Loving it (LLLI) Program. Rochelle can be contacted via email rlinklater@schs.com.au
	Claudia Napoli: Claudia is a Certified Practising Speech Pathologist. Claudia is passionate about speech development. Claudia is keen to provide education to parents and other professionals about children's milestones and the different areas of Speech Pathology. Claudia has completed the SPARK Communication Hanen Training to coach parents and educators to use Hanen strategies. Claudia can be contacted via email cnapoli@schs.com.au
	Emily Smith: Emily is a Speech Pathologist. What she enjoys most about her work is helping children to communicate with confidence. She is Hanen certified in the Learning Language and Loving It (LLLI) Program and enjoys any opportunity to share her knowledge and enthusiasm about Speech Pathology. Emily has a special interest in the area of Voice, having previously completed a Bachelor Degree and Graduate Diploma in Classical singing. Emily can be contacted via email esmith@schs.com.au

	Kaitlyn Langdon: Kaitlyn is an enthusiastic Certified Practising Speech Pathologist who is passionate about working in a collaborative approach to ensure children reach their full potential. She has experience in working with paediatrics and school aged-children in private practice and community health settings. Kaitlyn’s areas of special interest include literacy and language development. Kaitlyn is Hanen Certified in the Learning Language and Loving it (LLLI) Program, and is THRASS accredited. Kaitlyn can be contacted via email klangdon@schs.com.au
	Jessica Curnow: Jessica Curnow is a Certified Practising Speech Pathologist. Jessica enjoys working with children and educators to support speech, language and literacy development. Jessica is Hanen Certified in the Learning Language and Loving it (LLLI) Program. Jessica has a particular passion for emergent literacy skills in kindergarten/preschool and literacy/phonological awareness in school-aged children. Jess is originally from Bendigo and has lived and worked in country VIC, NSW and SA giving her broad experience in the three states education departments. Jessica can be contacted via email jcurnow@schs.com.au
	Emma Douglass: Emma is a Speech Pathologist who has worked across various settings including the Acute and Rehab Hospital settings, Specialist School and Early Intervention. Emma has been recently working in the Regional Communication Service – a program for Adults with a Complex Communication Need. Emma is looking forward to working with teachers to build their capacity in the areas of speech and language development, with a particular interest in Key Word Sign. Emma can be contacted via email edouglass@schs.com.au
	Caitlin Hancock: Caitlin Hancock is a Paediatric Occupational Therapist (OT). Caitlin is passionate about working with children to explore and understand their sensory processing difficulties as well as to support children with social skills, emotional regulation and fine motor development. Caitlin’s favourite part about working with children is being about to provide therapy through play! Caitlin has completed SPARK Hanen Training, Traffic Jam in My Brain and has recently expanded her knowledge on the Zones of Regulation and Socially Thinking strategies. Caitlin can be contacted via email chancock@schs.com.au
	Emma Frankel-Vaughan Emma is a Speech Pathologist with experience in educational and clinical settings. She most recently worked in private practice in Adelaide, supporting children with learning difficulties, including many with specific literacy difficulties. Emma has worked closely with families and education staff to assist them to implement support strategies at home and in education settings. She has a particular passion for capacity building in the area of literacy, and is looking forward to working with education staff to build their skills in explicit teaching, so that their teaching methods benefit all children in the classroom. Emma can be contacted via email efrankel-vaughan@schs.com.au